MINUTE ORDER (paperless), as to TERRY LYNN LINDSEY, GRANTING, as conceded, for the reasons stated on the record during the parties' March 25, 2022, pretrial conference, the government's [70] Motion in Limine to Limit Cross-Examination of Secret Service Witnesses and the government's [71] Motion in Limine to Preclude Improper Defense Arguments and Evidence. Accordingly, defendant is precluded from cross-examining any Secret Service witness about (1) the specific location to which the Vice President, his family, and motorcade were taken once the riot at the U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021 began, (2) any Secret Service protocols related to the locations where protectees or their motorcades are taken when emergencies occur, and (3) details about the nature of Secret Service protective details. Further, the defendant is precluded from arguing that law enforcement, by failing to act or censure his conduct, made his entry into restricted grounds lawful or authorized any violent entry, disorderly or disruptive conduct, or parading, demonstrating, or picketing in the U.S. Capitol building or grounds, and is precluded from introducing evidence of law enforcement inaction or failure to act unless he specifically observed such conduct or was otherwise aware of it in forming his own beliefs about the lawfulness of his entry into the U.S. Capitol building. The parties are further DIRECTED to submit, by noon on March 30, 2022, any remaining motions in limine or briefing in support of the admission Federal Rule 609(b) evidence, with any opposition due by 5 PM on April 4, 2022, and any reply due by noon on April 6, 2022. The government is further DIRECTED to file its final exhibit list by 5 PM on March 28, 2022, and its final witness list by 5 PM on April 4, 2022. The defendant is further DIRECTED to file, by 5 PM on March 29, 2022, his final exhibit list. Signed by Chief Judge Beryl A. Howell on March 25, 2022. (lcbah1) (Text entry; no document attached.)
