Defendant sworn and waives the formal reading of the Indictment. Defendant enters a Plea of Not Guilty as to all counts of the Indictment. Status Conference set for 3/4/2021 at 10:00 AM by VTC before Judge Christopher R. Cooper. The Court hereby adopts in full Chief Judge Howell's findings in Standing Order 20–93 (Dec. 17, 2020) postponing jury selection and trials in the District until March 15, 2021 due to the exigent circumstances posed by the COVID–19 pandemic. In light of those exigent circumstances and the worsening state of the pandemic in the region, the Court independently finds that holding a trial in this matter in contravention of the Chief Judges order would jeopardize the health and safety of the participants, courthouse staff, and the surrounding community alike. The Court therefore, in the interest of justice, excludes the time between February 5, 2021 and March 4, 2021 from the otherwise applicable speedy trial calculations. 11/21/2022	88	MOTION to Continue by RICHARD BARNETT. (Gross, Jonathan) (Entered: 11/21/2022)
11/21/2022		MINUTE ORDER: In light of Defendant's 88 Motion to Continue, the Government shall file a response to the motion by November 22, 2022. Signed by Judge Christopher R. Cooper on 11/21/2022. (lccrc2) (Entered: 11/21/2022)

11/23/2022	90	OPINION AND ORDER granting Prosecution's 56 Motion to Strike; denying Defendant's 74 Motion to Dismiss Count One; denying Defendant's 80 Motion to Dismiss All Counts; and denying Defendant's 81 Motion for Change of Venue. See full Opinion and Order for details. Signed by Judge Christopher R. Cooper on 11/23/2022. (lccrc2) (Entered: 11/23/2022)
11/23/2022		MINUTE ORDER: The Court will reserve judgment on the Defendant's 88 Motion to Continue the December 12, 2022 trial date pending receipt of a joint notice, to be filed by November 28, 2022, indicating specific dates on which the parties would be available for trial following a brief continuance. If the parties cannot offer a date that also conforms with the Court's schedule, the Court will deny the motion and proceed with the scheduled trial. The Court finds that none of the reasons advanced in the Defendant's motion are grounds for a continuance. This case was charged nearly two years ago, one trial date has already been vacated at the defense's request, and the present date was set over four months ago. Defense counsel, which now number at

		least three, have had more than ample time to prepare for trial. The defense has not identified any material evidence that it is lacking, either from the government's voluminous production of both case-specific and global discovery, or from other public sources. Nor is the pendency of the appeal in U.S. v. Miller an impediment to trial. This and other courts have proceeded with numerous January 6th trials involving the charge at issue in Miller. If the Circuit decides the issue in the defense's favor, then Mr. Barnett will receive the benefit of that ruling. There is no good reason to halt the trial in the meantime. As for any anticipated change in government trial counsel, the government has been aware of the current trial date for months and should have planned accordingly. That said, the Court would be willing to exercise its discretion and grant a brief continuance should a mutually agreeable date be available. The Court notes, however, that it has a busy docket of both January 6th cases and other matters and therefore may not be able to accommodate the parties' request. Signed by Judge Christopher R. Cooper on 11/23/2022. (lccrc2) (Entered: 11/23/2022)

11/29/2022		MINUTE ORDER: In light of the parties' 91 Notice of Trial Availability, Defendant's 88 Motion to Continue is GRANTED IN PART. The trial set for December 12, 2022 is vacated and scheduled for January 9, 2023 in Courtroom 27A. The pretrial conference set for December 9, 2022 is vacated and scheduled for January 4, 2023 at 10:00 am. The Court would be willing to hold the pretrial conference virtually at the parties' request. The parties shall exchange exhibit lists and identify all expert witnesses no later than December 19, 2022. The parties shall file objections to the admissibility of any exhibits within 3 business days after receipt of the exhibit list. The parties shall jointly submit a short narrative description of the case, to be read to the prospective jurors, and proposed voir dire questions no later than December 19, 2022. The parties shall file proposed jury instructions and a proposed verdict form—jointly to the extent possible—no later than December 27, 2022. The Court will presumptively use the substantive instructions given in United States v. Robertson, 21-cr-34, and United States v. Strand, 21-cr-85, to the extent the charges in those cases overlap with those here. The parties shall exchange lists of their case-in-chief witnesses prior to the pretrial conference and be prepared to review them with the Court at the conference. The parties shall comply with all other instructions from the Court's 63 Amended Pretrial Order. Signed by Judge Christopher R. Cooper on 11/29/2022. (lccrc2) (Entered: 11/29/2022)

12/28/2022		MINUTE ORDER granting in part and denying in part the government's 100 Motion to Compel production of defense exhibits. The purpose of the Court's requirement that the parties exchange lists of their anticipated case-in-chief exhibits, and then to indicate objections to the other side's exhibits, is to enable the Court to resolve as many evidentiary disputes as possible prior to trial. The Court finds that process particularly helpful in identifying categories of exhibits that might be subject to objection under Rules 402 or 403, as well as any exhibits that might present authentication issues. It also enables the Court to identify evidence that might be introduced through stipulations. It has also been the Court's experience that having the parties compile and review their anticipated exhibits often narrows each side's list and results in more realistic estimates of how long the presentation of evidence will take, which is obviously helpful to both the Court and the jury. The process is not intended to force either side to produce the exhibits themselves (although the Court does expect exhibit binders on the first day of each side's case), or to prevent the admission of unlisted exhibits on cross-examination or rebuttal, or even in one side's case-in-chief if circumstances warrant. With those principles in mind, the defense is directed to provide the government as helpful a list as possible forthwith, and to respond promptly to any questions the government may have if it cannot discern what the exhibit (or category of exhibits) is based on the description of the list. The Court expects the parties to work cooperatively so that the pretrial conference is as productive as possible, and the jury's time will not be wasted at trial. So Ordered. Signed by Judge Christopher R. Cooper on 12/28/2022. (lccrc2) (Entered: 12/28/2022)
12/28/2022		MINUTE ORDER granting in part and denying in part Defendant's 101 Motion for Extension of Time to File and granting 108 Motion for Extension of Time to File Proposed Jury Instructions and Verdict Form. As to 101 , the deadline for the defense to notice any expert witness testimony on the new civil disorder count is hereby extended to December 30, 2022. As to potential expert testimony on other counts, the defense would need to show good cause why belated notice would not prejudice the government's ability to retain rebuttal experts, research Daubert challenges, or prepare cross examination. The defense's request to "repopulate" the USAfx discovery transfer system is hereby denied in light of the government's prior discovery productions and its assistance to the defense in transferring all discovery to searchable platforms, as well as the government's representation that it has attempted to reconstruct the USAfx compilation previously provided to the defense. The government is directed to provide the new compilation to the defense notwithstanding the defense's apparent refusal to acknowledge that the new compilation may not be precisely the same as prior ones. As to 108 , the deadline for the defense to file proposed jury instructions and a proposed verdict form is extended to January 3, 2023. So Ordered. Signed by Judge Christopher R.
