GOVERNMENT’S UNOPPOSED MOTION TO CONTINUE STATUS CONFERENCE

The United States of America, by and through the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, hereby moves to continue the status hearing currently set for October 14, 2022, and to reschedule for some time on October 21, 2022, or after 2 p.m. on October 25 or 26, 2022. As the government previously advised via email, due to oversight the undersigned was not present for the recent status conference, which therefore required the Court to set a new date for a status conference; and unfortunately the undersigned will be on leave and outside the D.C. area all day on October 14.

Counsel for the defense does not oppose this motion and has advised that the defense is available on the dates and times suggested above. A proposed order is attached.

Respectfully submitted,

MATTHEW M. GRAVES
UNITED STATES ATTORNEY
