NOTICE TO THE COURT REGARDING TRIAL SCHEDULE

The Defendant, Alex Harkrider, by and through his counsel, Kira Anne West, hereby files this notice to inform the Court that undersigned counsel has scheduled activities on certain dates and states the following:

This case is set for jury selection on March 27, 2023. Undersigned counsel filed a “notice of proposed agreed trial date” on December 19, 2022, ECF No. 191, that the parties (both defendants and both prosecutors) had met and proposed the following date for trial: March 27-April 6, 2023.<sup>1</sup> Based on this discussion with all parties in this case, undersigned counsel made plans and reservations to take her elderly (a relative term, they are 85) parents on a post-Easter trip from April 13-17, 2023. Undersigned counsel was careful to consider the agreed upon trial dates, and knowing that trial dates are not set in stone, allowed three extra days- April 10, 11 and 12, 2023, to finish up the trial. And if this Court sits on Fridays as well, April 7, 2023 would give a 4th day to wrap up.

Also, on April 4, 2023, undersigned counsel, as pro hac vice counsel in USA v. Badalian, 21 CR 246 (ABJ) would like to appear for the reading of the verdict of the bench trial that finished last

<sup>1</sup> This was only proposed with the understanding that it would depend on the convenience and schedule of the Court. Of course, that remains the case.
