Case No. 21-CR-118 (RCL)

MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE OMNIBUS RESPONSE IN EXCESS OF PAGE LIMIT

On March 6, 2023, the defendants filed motion to dismiss the ten count indictments as well as motions to adopt each other's arguments. See ECF Nos. 161, 176, 177, 178, 182. On March 17, 2023, the government filed an unopposed motion to extend its deadline to respond to the defendants' motions, which the Court granted. See ECF No. 190; Order Granting Extension (March 17, 2023). The government's response is due on March 27, 2023.

In recognition of the page limits set forth in Local Criminal Rule 47(e), the government drafted a motion to exceed the page limit in an omnibus response and provided the defendants with a copy. The United States intends to file its omnibus response on the docket as an attachment to the motion to exceed the page limit. Rather than file two separate opposition briefs, each separately within the 45-page limit imposed by Local Criminal Rule 47(e), the government requests leave to file the attached omnibus opposition. The omnibus opposition is 55 pages long and concisely address each of the defendant's shared arguments. See Ex. 1. This is well below the 90 pages the government would have available via two separate filings under Local Criminal Rule 47(e).
