PRE-TRIAL SCHEDULING ORDER

In accordance with the oral rulings issued by the Court at the status hearing held on July 27, 2022, along with the General Order Governing Criminal Cases Before the Honorable Reggie B. Walton (August 2, 2022), ECF No. 53 (the “General Order”), it is hereby ORDERED that the parties shall file their (1) motions in limine, if any, on or before September 30, 2022; (2) their oppositions to any such motions on or before October 28, 2022; and their replies in support of any such motions on or before November 11, 2022. It is further ORDERED that the parties shall appear before the Court for a pretrial conference on January 19, 2023, at 2:00 p.m. In the event that the parties reach an agreement regarding their plea negotiations prior to that date, they shall notify the Courtroom Deputy as soon as they have reached an agreement. It is further

ORDERED that the government shall provide the defendant with notice of any evidence of other crimes it intends to use during the trial of this case pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 404(b) or evidence of prior convictions it intends to use for impeachment purposes, if the defendant decides to testify, on or before September 30, 2022, and any opposition to such notices shall be provided to the government on or before October 28, 2022. It is further

ORDERED that the government is reminded that it has an ongoing obligation to produce forthwith to the defendant any Brady/Giglio evidence the government becomes aware of. The government shall also produce to the defendant any Jencks Act material sufficiently in advance of witness's cross-examination so as not to cause delay. It is further ORDERED that the government shall produce to the defendant information regarding its expert(s) and any potential impeachment evidence related to the law enforcement officers involved in this case as soon as practicable after it becomes available. It is further

ORDERED that the parties shall meet and confer as soon as possible and thereafter submit their joint proposed voir dire questions, jury instructions, and verdict forms on or before November 11, 2022. If agreement cannot be reached on any matters relevant to the voir dire questions, jury instructions, or verdict forms, the parties shall provide separate submissions as to only those matters on which the parties cannot agree. It is further

ORDERED that the Court will empanel two alternate jurors. For the jury selection process, the defendant will have ten peremptory challenges against the potential regular jurors and two peremptory challenges against the potential alternate jurors for a total of twelve peremptory challenges. The government will have six peremptory challenges against the potential regular jurors and two peremptory challenges against the potential alternate jurors for a total of eight peremptory challenges. It is further

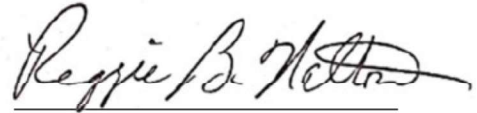

ORDERED that the Court will permit jurors to ask questions as delineated in the Court's General Order. See General Order Governing Criminal Cases Before the Honorable Reggie B. Walton at 7–8 (July 28, 2022), ECF No. 53.¹ It is further

ORDERED that jury selection and trial of this case shall commence on February 27,

¹ Any objections to permitting jurors to submit questions for witnesses should be raised at the pretrial conference on January 19, 2023.

2023, at 9:00 a.m.

SO ORDERED this 2nd day of August, 2022.
