GOVERNMENT’S PROPOSED PRETRIAL SCHEDULING ORDER

Trial is set to commence in this matter on August 7, 2023. The defendant has waived their right to trial by jury, but objects to proceeding to trial at this time on the misdemeanor counts. The Government proposes the following deadlines to govern all remaining pre-trial proceedings:

1. The Parties shall file any Pretrial Motions by June 23, 2023, and any responses to those Pretrial Motions by July 7, 2023.
2. The Parties shall file Legal Instructions by June 17, 2023.
3. The Parties shall file any stipulations by July 21, 2023.
4. The Parties shall provide witness and exhibit lists by July 28, 2023.

Respectfully submitted,

MATTHEW M. GRAVES
United States Attorney
