Cr. No. 21-cr-00176 (CJN)

JOINT MOTION TO CONTINUE DEADLINE BY WHICH PARTIES MUST FILE PROPOSED PRE-TRIAL SCHEDULING ORDER

The parties, through undersigned counsel, and pursuant to the Court’s Order directing the parties to submit a pre-trial scheduling Order by June 23, 2023, hereby respectfully move the Court to continue that deadline because jurisdiction for Count One continues to lie with the Court of Appeals.

As outlined in its Notice of Intent, the government respectfully requests that the government’s appeal in this case will continue to be held in abeyance until a mandate has issued. See ECF. No. 70. Because the Court of Appeals granted the Fischer defendants a stay pending final disposition by the Supreme Court, a mandate has not issued and will not issue until resolution in the Supreme Court. Therefore, the parties respectfully move the Court to continue the deadline by which the parties must file a pre-trial scheduling order to a date one week after a mandate has issued.

Respectfully submitted,
