GOVERNMENT’S NOTICE OF INTENT TO OFFER CERTIFIED DOMESTIC RECORDS OF REGULARLY CONDUCTED ACTIVITY

The United States of America, by and through the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, hereby provides notice to defendant Daniel D. Egtvedt, pursuant to rule 902(6) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, of its intent to offer into evidence at trial certified domestic records of regularly conducted activity.

Specifically, the government intends to offer into evidence records of the regularly conducted activity of Safeway, Inc., along with a certification from Safeway, Inc. The records and the certification, which were previously disclosed to the defense, meet the requirements of rule 803(6)(A) - (C) of the Federal Rules of Evidence, governing the hearsay exception for records of regularly conducted activity.

The records will be offered as proof of Count Three of the Superseding Indictment. In that count, the defendant is charged with interfering with law enforcement officers during a civil disorder, which civil disorder adversely affected commerce, the movement of an article in commerce, or a federal function. The records will be offered into evidence to prove that the civil disorder, during which the defendant interfered with law enforcement officers, affected commerce and the movement of articles in commerce.

Copies of the records are attached to this Notice.

Respectfully submitted
