P. 6274 (23258) (10/1/21): “You don’t tell them shit about us. Just say you sent word that you’d help me by telling the truth about Matt. That’s all you have to say. If they ask if I’ve been in contact with you baby, you just say no, that’s it. It’s none of their business anyway, but it’s also not a requirement or a law that you tell them. Please just help me! If I go to jail, I can’t help you with rent anymore. I can’t help you at all. Please just HELP ME! JESUS! This shouldn’t be so hard baby.”

P. 6274 (23268) (10/1/21): “A better plea deal with no prison sentence relies on this. There’s on more thing I could possibly say, but I really don’t want to. I’d almost rather take the jail time. P.6275 (23274-23278) (10/1/21): “I’m not saying his name, Dana. Not in writing and not to anyone else...cause I may end up NEEDING it. This is my life, Dana. They’re talking about 53 months. That’s FOUR AND A HALF YEARS FOR FUCKING NOTHING... NO VIOLENCE OR DESTRUCTIVE BEHAVIOR AT ALL. I can’t believe they’re trying to give me YEARS and they’re giving others who literally did the same shit probation. This doesn’t make sense...they’re coming hard for me and I don’t deserve it. Hell, one guy who did assault a police officer got to plead down to misdemeanors! Not me! I need fucking help. I don’t know why they won’t give me the same breaks they’re giving everyone else with no violent charges. Literally, so far, almost everyone without a violent charge has gotten a pretty standard 1 to 3 misdemeanors and probation. They’re making me ride this out and want to make me take the felon. It isn’t fair and it isn’t right and I need your help to possibly beat it.”

P. 6288 (23582) (10/1/21): “Please send the email saying you’re willing to help me. I’m not going to tell anyone you sent anything, I just need this to work out so bad. I absolutely NEED to get that felony dropped. This is important. I don’t deserve YEARS in prison at all.

P.6292 (23717) (10/3/21): “And I dare you to get mad and tell the Gov...but before you make yet another terrible decision, you should know that involving them isn’t going to just lead to my arrest, you will 100% be arrest too. I happen to have, what some people would consider to be, an ‘insurance policy’ that ensures you get arrested and go to prison.

P. 6296 (23717) (10/3/21): “The right thing for me would be coming here with me this weekend and between rounds, we can discuss what you’re going to do to help me avoid prison time. P.6305 (23861) (10/5/21): “I may go to jail for a violation, but you’ll go to jail for a felony. I guarantee that. I spoke to an attorney today. It’s all being handled.
