Re: Character Reference for Christian Cortez

To: Whom It May Concern,

It is a genuine honor to share my thoughts with you about the true character of Christian Cortez. My name is Amy Shaler, and I am writing in hopes to give more insight into what a wonderful person he is. He is my God Son, and I love him!

I have known Christian Cortez his entire life, actually even before he was born. I have also known his Mom and her family since we were in 8th grade, in 1987. My knowledge of Christian Cortez' character includes many interactions every stage of his life growing up. My daughter is one year younger than Christian, and the two were raised closely together.

I have only known Christian to be a good person...helpful, and such a family-centered young man. From a very young age, he has always been helpful with his younger brother and the other kids that his mom babysat. He has worked closely with his Dad, following in his footsteps of a love for anything to do with technology. He also has a wonderful, caring relationship with his Mom and her new husband. Christian has always had many friends. My daughter regards him as a brother. He truly loves his family and friend tribes.

Christian is a hard worker! Whether learning new skills for his technology or photography jobs or helping around the house, he is always willing to help others. He is a great asset to our community.

As you can see, Christian Cortez is a loving and wonderful son, friend, and brother. It is my hope that you will take this letter of character reference into consideration as you try to learn more about him.

Sincerely,

Amy Shaler
