Criminal No. 1:21-cr-00354-APM

AGREEMENT AND WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL RIGHTS

Defendant Thomas B. Adams, Jr., by and through counsel, hereby acknowledges that he will be waiving the following rights by proceeding with a Stipulated Trial:

1. The constitutional right to trial by jury. At a trial, the government would have to present evidence to prove the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.
2. The right to cross-examine witnesses presented by the government and the right to have witnesses called to court to testify on behalf of the defendant.
3. The right to counsel to assist the defendant at trial.
4. The right to testify if the defendant chose to do so. However, if the defendant chose not to testify, the Court would instruct the jury that the decision could not be used against the defendant.
5. At a trial, the defendant could not be convicted unless all twelve jurors unanimously agreed that the government had proved the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.
6. The defendant understands and acknowledges that if he is not a citizen of the United States, his conviction could result in his deportation or have other immigration consequences.

If the Court grants leave to proceed with a Stipulated Trial, you will give up these rights. The government agrees that proceeding with a Stipulated Trial will not curtail, abridge, or otherwise affect the defendant's right to appeal the Court's denial of his motion to dismiss Count 1, which charges a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1512(c)(2). The Court will consider the Statement of Facts, and if it believes that the government has proven the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, the Court will find the defendant guilty. The defendant's signature below means that he wishes to proceed by a Stipulated Trial and give up those rights.
