Letter of Support for Noah S. Bacon

Dear Judge Cooper,

By way of introduction, I am Katharine (Kate) Perkins, Robert's oldest sister and Noah's aunt/Godmother. I am a retired Social Worker, living in Camden ME with my husband, Robert Perkins. I have not seen much of Noah in the past few years, due to Covid, but have always thought of him as a kind, gentle soul who walks his own path.

I was stunned to hear that he was one of the people who broke into the Capitol on January 6th. And also stunned to hear that he was a follower of our former President. Our family is sickened by the violence and lies perpetrated by that man. Noah must've lost his way, was my first thought. Noah's way is the way of goodness, peace and truth. He has never been a violent sort. It deeply concerns me that he went astray on that infamous day, so far from the gentle soul I have always known him to be. I do not know what led him to that but firmly believe it to be an aberration from the path his life has always been on.

I am certain that he has learned his lesson and that Noah would not find himself in that situation again. He certainly is not a danger to Society, far from it. The Noah I know has a beautiful, gentle soul. He's not the type who endorses lawlessness or violence or lies. Again, it stunned all of us that he had anything to do with the events of January Sixth.

I hope that Noah will be allowed to follow his path of goodness. This is a heart-breaking time in history.

With all due respect,

Katharine B. Perkins
