I will look into it myself then. I was just hoping that you would extend me the courtesy of answering these questions since you are aware that we had a deadline this morning at 9:00 am to file a motion regarding you neglecting to provide this information to the defense, but I acknowledge that you aren't required to do so. Thanks so much for all your information, and I hope you have a good rest of the weekend.

Subject: RE: Campanale 302

Good Morning, Ms. Lambert,

Yes, sorry for the confusion: Wren/Smith was a 2-defendant trial that Campanale testified in and for which we have no transcripts yet. There may be other 302s that (1) mention these officers by name (often 302s where FBI agents say "I requested the BWC for Officer X, Y, and Z"), which we do not provide because they are not statements at all, or (2) 302s that do not relate to the subject of their testimony in this case, which we also do not provide; for example, the Anderson one you referenced re his time in the tunnel or another re Campanale getting hit in the head by a pole – because neither of those had anything to do with these officers' testimony in this case, they were not provided.

Unless a 302 was created very recently, it should be in global discovery. I'll take a look when I have a moment on the Anderson/tunnel one and let you know if I can find it.

Hope this helps clarify your questions.

Thanks,

Samantha

In reviewing this I think i understand that US v Wren is the only case in which Campanale testified against two defendants Smith and Wren. Am I correct in this statement?

There's a reference in Anderson's 302 also stating that he was interviewed previously regarding his time in the tunnel, which while I acknowledge has no connection to this case, I would like to see that interview as we have clients that are accused of being in the tunnel area generally.

Sorry for the confusion, but many of these reports are so vastly different in many ways, and they seem to reference material that I either also don't have or seems to not exist, so I'm baffled by them.
Thank You,
Em

Ok, in your previous email you mentioned SMITH as well as WREN, so now I am doubly confused about exactly what I am missing here and where it would be located. Are you now stating that Smith is NOT a J6 related case? Were these defendants prosecuted together? Can you point me to that case if so?

Also, am I correct in that you are saying that nobody from the US Attorneys Office or the FBI interviewed these officers prior to last week? There have been no other interviews of these Officers? How were charges brought without interviewing the victims?

Thank You,

Em

Sean & Samantha,
I am referring to the passage in Campanale's 302 where it states, and I quote verbatim: "Campanale has testified several times before, both in D.C. District Court and D.C. Superior Court, Camapnale testified in other January 6 cases, most recently in U.S. v. Wren. It was a long year (2020) for

Campanale, and January 6th was “piggybacking” on that.”

I am concerned you both seem to have different answers for whether or not he has previously testified, and I also question whether testifying only two times would warrant the use of the word “several”.

Thank You,
Em

Can you please confirm that these 302's with Campanale, Anderson, Leano, and Niewenhous on 5/11 are the ONLY ones that exist? There's one for each of them, and two for Campanale? These officers were NEVER interviewed prior to 5/11 by the FBI?

Ms. Lambert,

Serial 120 covers our meeting with him on 5/2/23, which was included in the recent production. I thought you meant did we provide 302s previously on him – the answer is no; but we met with him twice in the last two weeks, once by video and once in person, serials 120 and 128 (also attached).

Sorry for the the confusion. More broadly, I believe Ainsworth is the only officer-witness we talked to prior May 2023.

Thanks,

Samantha
