CASE NO. 21-CR-644-RDM

JOINT STATUS REPORT

The United States of America, through undersigned counsel, and Defendant, by and through his attorney, Bruce H. Searby, Esquire (collectively, “the Parties”), respectfully submit this status report, as directed by the Court, and state as follows:

1. On October 26, 2021, the defendant, Adam Mark Weibling was charged by way of information with (Count One) Entering and Remaining in a Restricted Building or Grounds in violation of Title 18 U.S.C. § 1752(a)(1); (Count Two) Disorderly and Disruptive Conduct in a Restricted Building or Grounds in violation of Title 18 U.S.C. § 1752(a)(2); (Count Three) Disorderly Conduct in Capitol Building in violation of Title 18 U.S.C. § 40(e)(2)(D); and (Count Four) Parading, Demonstrating, or Picketing in a Capitol Building in violation of Title 18 U.S.C. § 40(e)(2)(G). ECF 20.

2. The defendant has been out on bond since his May 25, 2021 arrest and remains compliant with conditions of release.

3. Since the Initial Appearance on June 3, 2021, the Court has ordered the exclusion of time from Speedy Trial calculations through April 7, 2022, collectively. The Court has also ordered parties to file a joint status report on or before April 7, 2022.

4. Since the last Joint Status Report, the parties have discussed and reviewed the formal plea offer and the facts of this case. The government agrees to extend the expiration date of the current plea offer through April 28, 2022. Parties believe this additional time will allow for more complete review of the case and may lead to resolution of this case short of trial.

5. Since March 7, 2022, the filing of the most recent status report, defense counsel has been advised that the following items among others, have been produced (under Global Productions 12 and 13) to the defense Relativity workspace: over 250 FBI interviews of Capitol and Metropolitan Police officers and associated exhibits (889 files total); 3 search warrants and related materials for 63 Facebook accounts; 2 search warrants and related materials for Google account subscriber information and location data from the Capitol and restricted perimeter; an application and related orders for basic subscriber information and call records for devices present within the Capitol on January 6, 2021; a search warrant and related Facebook materials for accounts associated with 2,087 advertising identifiers; 10 search warrants and related materials for anonymized location data collected by ten data aggregation companies; 6 search warrants and related materials pertaining for cell tower data from Verizon, AT&T, and T-Mobile/Sprint; video footage from a French news agency; several MPD files regarding arrest paperwork, BOLO material and tips; and several USCP files regarding emails, prisoner processing, event chronology and abandoned property. Defense counsel has access to this defense Relativity workspace and parties remain compliant with issued protective order (ECF 10).

6. Parties are agreed to a 30-day continuance of this matter and to excluding the time within which the trial must commence under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161 et seq. Parties believe this time will allow for further production and review of discovery and facilitate
