This matter having come before the Court pursuant to the application of the United States to seal criminal complaint, the Court finds that, because of such reasonable grounds to believe the disclosure will compromise the integrity of the investigation, including the government's ability to locate and arrest the defendants, the United States has established that a compelling governmental interest exists to justify the requested sealing.

2. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk's office shall delay any entry on the public docket of the arrest warrant until it is executed.
