JOINT STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The parties hereby jointly submit this statement of the case.

This is a criminal case. The government has charged the defendant, Benjamin Scott Burlew, with violating eight federal criminal laws based on his conduct at the U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021. Specifically, the government alleges that Mr. Burlew unlawfully engaged in a civil disorder, assaulted, resisted or impeded a Metropolitan Police Officer, entered or remained in restricted grounds, engaged in disorderly or disruptive conduct in a restricted grounds, engaged in physical violence in restricted grounds, committed an act of physical violence in the Capitol grounds, assaulted an individual by striking, beating, or wounding that person within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States, and committed a simple assault within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States. Mr. Burlew denies each and every charge.

Respectfully submitted,
