v.	:	CASE NO. 21-CR-620-BAH
ANTHONY VUKSANAJ,	:
Defendant.	:

UNOPPOSED MOTION TO RESET SENTENCING DEADLINES

The United States of America respectfully moves for the revision of certain deadlines in connection with the sentencing of the defendant. In support of this motion, the United States states as follows:

On January 20, 2022, the defendant entered a plea of guilty to Count 4 of the Information in a change of plea hearing before the Court. Sentencing is set for April 29, 2022.

Pursuant to the Court's Standing Order, the parties' sentencing memoranda are currently due on April 15, 2022, and any responses thereto are currently due on April 20, 2022. Doc. 11 at 5. Consistent with the Court's Standing Order, the final Presentence Report will be available no later than March 30, 2022. Id.

Due to scheduling conflicts involving international travel, counsel for the government will be unavailable to submit a response to the defendant's sentencing memorandum on April 20, 2022.

Accordingly, the government requests that the parties' deadlines be moved one week earlier, as follows: Sentencing memoranda would be due on April 8, 2022, and any responses thereto would be due on April 13, 2022.

The United States has conferred with counsel for the defendant regarding this motion and said counsel does not oppose the motion.

WHEREFORE, the United States respectfully requests an order revising the parties' sentencing deadlines as described above.

This 7th day of March, 2022.

Respectfully submitted,
