Case No. 21-cr-710 (TSC)

STATUS REPORT AND MOTION TO CONTINUE SENTENCING

The United States of America, by and through its attorney, the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, hereby submits the following Status Report. The government also respectfully moves the Court to continue the Sentencing currently scheduled for December 13, 2022 to one of the below proposed dates. Defendant, through his counsel, Sam Cross, does not oppose. In support of the Motion, the government represents:

1. The defendant is before the Court charged in an information with: Entering and Remaining in a Restricted Building, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, § 1752(a)(1); Disorderly and Disruptive Conduct in a Restricted Building, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, § 1752(a)(2); Disorderly Conduct in a Capitol Building, in violation of Title 40, United States Code, § 5104(e)(2)(D); and Parading, Demonstrating, or Picketing in a Capitol Building, in violation of Title 40, United States Code, § 5104(e)(2)(G) (ECF No. 8).
2. On July 18, 2022, as part of a plea agreement, the defendant pled guilty to Parading, Demonstrating, or Picketing in a Capitol Building, in violation of Title 40, United States Code, § 5104(e)(2)(G) in satisfaction of the charges against him.

3. The Court set sentencing for December 13, 2022 at 12:30 pm in person in Washington, D.C.
4. Government counsel for this case will now be traveling from Texas on December 12, 2022. Further, government counsel is based in Plattsburgh, New York and has a second sentencing (United States v. Uberto, 22-cr-007-TSC) set for the week of December 12, 2022 in person in Washington, D.C. before this Court. In an effort to avoid the conflict with counsel's travel from Texas and to consolidate travel to the District of Columbia, the government seeks an adjournment of the sentencing in the McCormick matter from December 12, 2022 to any of the following dates/times:
 - a. Monday, December 19, 2022 at 10 am or 11 am;
 - b. Tuesday, December 20, 2022 at 10 am or 11 am; or
 - c. Friday, December 16, 2022 at 10 am or 11 am.
5. Defense counsel advised they are available on those dates and times and do not object to the rescheduling request.
6. Therefore, the government requests the December 12, 2022 Sentencing be continued to one of the above dates/times.
7. The defendant is out of custody.
8. The defendant concurs with this request.

Respectfully submitted,

MATTHEW M. GRAVES
United States Attorney
