Case No. 1:22-CR-00034-01 (RBW)

DEFENDANT’S UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR DISCLOSURE OF U.S. PROBATION OFFICE’S SENTENCING RECOMMENDATION

NOW COMES Defendant Aiden Bilyard, by and through undersigned counsel, and moves this Court to allow the parties to be given access to the U.S. Probation Office’s sentencing recommendation in this case.

Undersigned counsel recently placed a request to the U.S. Probation Officer to receive that office’s sentencing recommendation for Mr. Bilyard. Undersigned counsel was advised that, while several judges in this District do routinely require such productions, this Court does not. Accordingly, undersigned counsel was advised that if he petitioned this Court and such an order was obtained, the recommendation would be produced by the Probation Office; otherwise, it would not. This filing now follows up on that call, in an effort to obtain that desired information.

No prejudice will arise from the parties being given access to the Probation Office’s sentencing recommendation, so they can better know how to tailor their arguments at the upcoming sentencing hearing. The defense has contacted Assistant U.S. Attorney Jordan Koenig about this issue, and he advises that the Government has no objection to this motion being granted.

Accordingly, the Defendant requests that this Court grant this motion to allow the parties to see the Probation Office’s sentencing recommendation. A Proposed Order is filed herewith.

This 15th day of March, 2023.

Respectfully submitted,
