

To Whom it May Concern,

I am writing on behalf of Kenneth Duncan Massie, who I understand is being charged with parading/picketing inside of a government building.

My family and I have been friends with Duncan, his wife and their 7 children for about 15 years, which has been an absolute gift. Through the years we have vacationed with them by sharing beach houses many times. I can't say enough about the wonderful man that Duncan is. He is someone that I trust whole heartily with the lives of my children. I have only known him to be peaceful and caring: hardworking, faithful, loving towards his family and others. He is a man that has true conviction in his faith, morals, work ethic, and freedom of his political beliefs. I have never known him to be someone to break the law, as he is an extremely dedicated husband and father. He would not set that kind of example for his children, nor put his wife (who is fortunate enough to get to stay home with their children) in a compromised position in which she would be left without him.

I am not surprised that Duncan went to rally on January 6th, as he is passionate about his political beliefs, to ensure the freedoms he has had will continue on for his children and grandchildren. In doing so, I can assure you he wouldn't have done anything, if he thought he was breaking the law. Duncan has 5 boys that he tries to set a Godly example for. He wouldn't do something to compromise that.

I ask that as his case comes before you that you take these things into consideration. Please do not hold him accountable for something he didn't know was wrong. Let him continue to create a legacy for his children that he can be proud of.

I appreciate the time you have taken to read this.

Sincerely,

Kathryn Elizabeth Forsyth
