Dear Judge Cooper:

My name is Rogelio Castaneda Jr. and I have known Brad for over a year and a half. In this short period of time of knowing Brad, I have seen his passion for providing service to others.

I am respectful of the plea that Brad has entered, and hope that this letter can give insight into how a lighter sentence will benefit our church, our community, and Brad as a person. Brad is very involved in our church community. He is giving of his time and talents to help serve the parishioners of Saint Peter Catholic Church. I have seen him be a consistent volunteer as a Lector Minister, as well as participated side by side with Brad at our church's Easter Egg Hunt, Donuts with Saint Nick, and canned food drive for our local community to name a few. Brad is a devout Catholic who attends and lends a helping hand with many church tasks and parish functions.

Brad is a trusted parishioner and friend. He can be counted on to be of help to others in our church community, as well as those in our local community. I ask that you show leniency with a lighter sentence because of the many ways Brad participates and gives of his time to our church community, as well as our local community. We need him so we can continue to provide service to our church and local community.

Sincerely,

Rogelio Castaneda Jr.
