Date: April 7 2023

Salutations, Honorable Judge Mcfadden

My name is Mitchell Lewis and I am a good friend of Luke Lints. I have known him and his family for over fifteen years at this point and know his whole story and situation intimately. We have lived together on and off over the years and am currently his roommate presently. As to his character he is a loyal and hardworking person. His whole mission and goal is to love, protect and grow food. He regularly protected me from bullies and harassment in highschool, helped me when my basement flooded and went above the call of friendship when I faced bouts of illness. He is as gentle of a soul as anyone makes them, the only way I have ever seen him act aggressively is in the protection of people who couldn't help themselves, this was true in highschool and I believe even more true in the incidence has been accused of. He has suffered so much at the hands of this event and yet his intentions with both officers, his families, me and his community is how he can protect, educate and grow food for them. I have always seen his judgment as fair and honest and his intentions always good. I say this as one of the people who know him best.

If you have any questions please reach out at your convenience.

Sincerely,

Mitchell James Lewis
