MOTION TO EXTEND TIME

Pursuant to Rule 16(d) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, Defendant moves to enter the attached expert disclosure (“Disclosure”) into the record, and, to the extent an extension of time is necessary, moves for an extension of time in which to do so.

The Court’s scheduling order set the deadline for Defendant to disclose its expert witnesses for February 13, 2023. In the two weeks prior to this deadline, Counsel for Defendant Quentin G. Cantrell (“QGC”) was hospitalized and unavailable for more than a week; he returned on the Friday the 10th. Prior to returning Counsel for QGC unsuccessfully sought an extension of the deadline. Consequently, Counsel served the Disclosure, via email, on February 13. The Government subsequently informed Counsel for QGC that it believed the Disclosure should be filed with the Court, rather than merely served on the parties. Although the proposed scheduling order and Court’s minute entry on scheduling do not specify the mechanism for disclosure, QGC does not object to filing it with the Court, and therefore now seeks to do so. To the extent and extension of time is necessary, the Government does not object.

Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(b)(1)(C)(v) and (vi), the attached version has been signed by the witness.
