Undersigned counsel communicated multiple times with Mr. Todd, both by telephone and by text. Mr. Todd is doing well and attended his appointment with his VA doctor today at 3:30 pm local time (4:30 pm Eastern Time). He has another appointment scheduled for Tuesday at 3:00 or 3:30 pm ET. He has also reached out to the other doctor mentioned during the hearing, who is an Army veteran, and left a message and is waiting to receive a call back.

Counsel also talked multiple times by telephone with Missouri pre-trial services officer Brian Graham. He indicated that pre-trial services would be visiting Defendant's house today to check on equipment, etc. Mr. Graham indicated that he would likely require Mr. Todd to visit the pre-trial office Friday and Monday, and then of course for the Tuesday hearing.

Counsel also spoke with DC pre-trial services office Christine Schuck today by telephone. Ms. Schuck indicated she had spoken to pre-trial services in South Carolina last night, and that they were scheduled to go to visit and vet Defendant's sister, Kristen Revels, one of the proposed third-party custodians, on Friday. In addition, counsel e-mailed Ms. Schuck to let her know and to confirm that Kyle Revels, Kristen's husband, has also agreed to be a third-party custodian.

Counsel has also discussed obtaining a release form for medical records with both Mr. Graham and Ms. Schuck. They both indicated this may have to be a form that comes from the VA doctor since different providers have different forms they prefer to be used.
