DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES)
 V.) Case No. 22-cr-166 (MAU)
JOHN GEORGE TODD,) Defendant.)

Daily Status Report Regarding Defendant While on Pre-Trial Release

Counsel spoke with Defendant Todd today by telephone. He is doing well and reports no issues. Pre-trial services visited him today and will visit him Monday as well. I will arrange for his transportation for the bond hearing on Tuesday at the pre-trial services office. In addition, counsel spoke by telephone with DC pre-trial services officer Christine Schuck. She reports that South Carolina pre-trial services was to have conducted a home visit today with the proposed third-party custodians in South Carolina. She has not heard that there were any problems with that visit. In addition, she has arranged for background checks to be conducted regarding the custodians. She also said that South Carolina pre-trial services was lined up to present for the bond hearing on next Tuesday. She said she would contact me if anything further was needed, and vice versa. Based on the conversation I had with Mr. Graham of Missouri pre-trial services yesterday, at this point there appears to be no need for any further medical releases. But that is certainly something that counsel will coordinate upon request of any of the pre-trial offices.
