

Dear Judge Boasberg,

I am Alex Valentin the son of Louis Valentin, Although I may not be the one who committed this offense I will do anything in my power to help my fathers case. I would like to tell you a little bit about my father. My parent met at a young age and have been together since high school, and had me and my brother at a young age, I couldn't have ever asked for a better pair of parents. Growing up baseball was always a big if not the biggest deal from the big leagues to the small wiffle ball we hit in the house wearing diapers. My father Louis was my first ever coach at age 3 he proceeded to coach me up until junior year of high school. Along this journey he was also a father figure to many other little kids just like me, the best part of it all is how welcomed the other kids felt by him. This was not only on the field but off the field as well, the countless sleepovers, birthday parties, and team dinners he hosted. He has always been my biggest inspiration seeing how hard he works to keep food on the table and to make sure we have all the clothes we need and whatever funds may come with baseball. He has taught me everything I know today and always rooted strong morals into me always pushing me to work hard at everything I do not only on the field but in the classroom and anything else I may be doing. These morals are the reason why today i am the first person in my family to attend college and in 2 weeks will be the first person with college credits. He always taught me to dream big and I could've never imagined I would be at the prestigious University of Miami living out my dreams of becoming a big leaguer one day, all this thanks to my father Louis Valentin. Please take this into account and forgive my father for any wrong doings he may have committed.

Sincerely, Alex Valentin
