Honorable Judge Randolph Moss

I have worked with Luke Fulkner on quite a lot of concrete jobs for at least 12 yrs. He is a very hard working and honest man. He does a great job on finishing the concrete + has always been there to do the concrete. He has always been there when the concrete was there.

Honesty, Hard work + punctuality are not always common in the construction business but Luke has been all of the above.

Thanks - Steve Campbell

I have known, like, since 1998. He has done 10-15 concrete jobs for me. He is very good at his job - honest and a Christian. I have referred him to many other people as well as close friends. I would not have done that if there were any negatives. His character, since I have known him, has always spoken for itself. I will continue to use Luke for any future jobs needed as well as refer him to others.

Dear Judge Randolph D. Moss,

I am writing this letter on behalf of Luke Faulkner.

I have known Luke for 6 years. Luke was referred to me by a friend to complete a very extensive and complicated concrete driveway. Once he started the job, I had total confidence that I hired the right guy! His attention to detail was reassuring.

He always included me in explaining any changes or modifications.

I have referred him to many friends and business acquaintances.

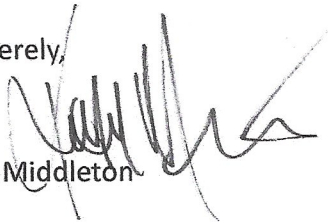

Over the 4-month project I found Luke to be a very family orientated man. I also had the pleasure of meeting his son during the job and was extremely impressed. So much that every time we talk, I inquire about him and the progression of his career.

I have found Luke to be of the highest character and a man of his word. I do consider him a friend.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Ken Middleton

RE: Character reference for Luke Faulkner

Dear Honorable Judge Randolph Daniel Moss,

My name is Greg Kraft. I retired in 2000 as a Dayton, Ohio Police Officer. After I retired, I started selling houses for a local builder. While building new homes, I met Luke Faulkner. He was our concrete contractor. He impressed me, from day one. Luke met every obligation to our company and proved himself as one of the most honest and dependable people I have ever met. As a result, we have become great friends, over the years.

In 2015, my wife and I, moved to Florida and started a construction company of our own. Because we didn't have many sub-contractors to call upon, at first. I wanted to impress our customers by providing the very best service. I called upon Luke to help with a few projects. Luke was more than happy to help and drove more than 1100 miles to lay concrete slabs for several projects, that we were working on. While in Florida, Luke stayed at my house with my family. I would consider Luke part of my family and am more than willing to vouch for his dependability, integrity, work ethic and overall outstanding character. Never once has Luke let me or my company down. Which is very rare for a contractor.

In conclusion, when Luke asked for a character reference from me, I couldn't say yes quick enough. As I said earlier, Luke is an outstanding person with incredible integrity. Please accept my opinion of him with high regard. As I would not write this, if I didn't believe it to be true.

Thank you for your consideration on this matter!!

Sincerely,
