

Honorable Judge Randolph Moss,

I am writing this letter on behalf of Luke Faulkner, as testament to his character and his longtime relationship with my family and our community. It is my hope that my sincere words are conveyed in such a way to give you a more in-depth portrait of the man I know. Based solely on my knowledge and the sentiments of many people in our community, who are saddened by the unfortunate events that have led to the writing of this letter.

I have known Luke since he was in grade school. No person is perfect, but this is what I know. His parents lived two houses down from us and were well thought of in the community. Luke was at our house often growing up as he is my brother's best friend. His aunt was my fifth-grade science teacher at Mason Central and was a much-loved figure in the community. We grew up with a strong sense of God, country and family. We were taught the importance of character and keeping your word and how those traits defined you as a human being.

I do know that Luke is hardworking, loves his family and has established long term positive relationships with many people including myself. I am a 61year old, recently retired registered nurse and have seen the best and the worst of what our society has to offer. I can honestly say Luke Faulkner is a decent and kind person. He is very active in his church and genuinely cares about the welfare of others. I would like to thank you for the consideration of this letter in your discernment.

Sincerely,

Tanya J. Barnes

COURT REFERENCE LETTER

Re: Luke Faulkner

Dear Honorable Judge Moss:

Our names are Dick and Lois Wainscott and we are very proud to offer our recommendation of Luke Faulkner to whom we have personally known for 6 years as our friend .

During our relationship with Luke we have experienced an individual who showed up to a job on time, works hard, and carries himself in a polite, respectable manner. In addition, Luke is a family man who always presents himself with levelheadedness, grace and respect to everyone he comes in contact with.

We first met Luke when we were looking to have some concrete patio work done at our home. We had called numerous companies but no one would ever respond. We contacted Luke and he committed to showing up the next day to our home and came as promised and provided us a quote. Not only did Luke come as promised to provide the quote he did an outstanding job, his work was beautiful and he came to work every day as promised until the job was completed. That was six years ago and we feel blessed that not only did we get some great concret work done but more importantly Luke has become someone that we consider to be a member of our family. Luke will stop by our home to visit and sit and talk for awhile or just calls to make sure that we are okay and as older people that means alot to us that he makes that time for us.

Best,

To The Honorable Randolph Moss,

My name is James Michael Rankin. I am 61 years of age. I am currently the Pastor of the Wilmington Baptist Church in Wilmington, Ohio.

The purpose of my letter is to testify as to the character of Luke Faulkner.

Luke Faulkner is a member in good standing at the Wilmington Baptist Church. It is with great esteem that I recommend him to you as an upstanding and honorable citizen of the United States of America.

I have known Luke Faulkner for four years now. Not long after meeting Luke he made a commitment to make Jesus Christ the Lord of his life. He immediately got involved in our church along with his family. He has proven to be a man of great character regarding faithfulness to God and his family. He has become our lead outreach minister in public evangelism. He has been faithful every Sunday to serve in our morning worship. He helps in the Adult Sunday School class. And really, anything, anywhere, and any time opportunity to serve is needed.

If I may be so bold to state that a man of lesser character would never be allowed to serve and have such leadership responsibilities in our church. He has proven to be a man of such honorable character that it is my privilege and joy to minister with him.

I have observed over the years that Luke Faulkner is not a man given to angry or violent passions. He is compassionate and caring toward all men.

I believe that Luke Faulkner will continue to be a man of integrity and Christlikeness no matter the outcome of this hearing.

Above all, I am convinced that Luke Faulkner would never, under any circumstance knowingly and or willingly disobey the law or its agents. Whether he is of an adverse opinion or not, he has been and I believe will continue to be compliant.

Sincerely,

To The Honorable Judge Randolph Moss,

My name is Amy Campbell, and I am currently a graduate student at The University of Dayton. I had the honor to serve as a military wife for almost 24 years with my husbands' service in the Army. We are still married and have grown children that are also military, or government employees. Our dedication to this country and our laws are important to us as a proud military family.

I am writing to you regarding the character of Luke Faulkner in hopes that you will consider the words from this letter in your decision upon sentencing. I have known Luke Faulkner for most of my life since I was young. I had the honor and pleasure to get to know Luke much better on a deeper friend level for almost 17 years, since he married a friend of mine.

In all those years anytime that my husband and I would travel back to the area or if we ever needed anything, we always knew that Luke would be there. Luke has always been a generous and peaceful person no matter the circumstances. I have never known Luke to be anything other than who he presents himself as. A loving and caring husband, father, and grandfather. A hard-working, God-fearing Christian with beliefs and morals that guides Luke in his life and that of his family. He demonstrates kindness to everyone he encounters and leaves his mark wherever he goes.

I have had conversations with Luke over the incident that took place in the Capitol on January 6, 2020. I have not had the opportunity to see any video footage for the defense, however I can only hope that my words about Luke lines up with that of the defense and helps with whatever decision is made in the case. Luke has said that he will take responsibility for whatever is decided as his punishment and he has shown willingness to cooperate throughout the process. I don't believe you will find many people that could say anything bad about Luke. The heart and dedication that Luke has for his God, family, friends, and country are what encompass the very being of who Luke Faulkner is.

Respectfully,

Amy M. Campbell

To: The Honorable
Judge Randolph Moss,

I, Julie Adams am speaking on behalf of Luke Faulkner.

I have known Luke for over Twenty years. He is one of the most generous, Hard working, Kind and warm man I have ever met. When I first met Luke he instantly made me feel like his family.

When I have Struggled in the Past financially Luke has given me a bedroom in his home. He would give his shirt off his Back even if it was a stranger let alone his friends and family. He has also been generous and Caring to my daughters and myself.

Luke is very dedicated to his wife, Children and grandchildren also his work, Church and friends.

Luke Faulkner is all around the Best Friend I could of asked for.

Thank you,
Julie Adams
