STATEMENT OF FACTS

I, Nicholas Kooch, am a Special Agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation and have served in that capacity since October 2019. By virtue of my assignment with the FBI, I am authorized to conduct investigations into violations of U.S. law. I am an investigative or law enforcement officer of the United States within the meaning of Section 2510 (7) of Title 18 United States Code. As a Special Agent, I am authorized by law to engage in or supervise the prevention, detection, investigation, or prosecution of violations of Federal criminal.

Background

The U.S. Capitol is secured 24 hours a day by U.S. Capitol Police. Restrictions around the U.S. Capitol include permanent and temporary security barriers and posts manned by U.S. Capitol Police. Only authorized people with appropriate identification were allowed access inside the U.S. Capitol. On January 6, 2021, the exterior plaza of the U.S. Capitol was also closed to members of the public.

On January 6, 2021, a joint session of the United States Congress convened at the United States Capitol, which is located at First Street, SE, in Washington, D.C. During the joint session, elected members of the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate were meeting in separate chambers of the United States Capitol to certify the vote count of the Electoral College of the 2020 Presidential Election, which had taken place on November 3, 2020. The joint session began at approximately 1:00 p.m. Shortly thereafter, by approximately 1:30 p.m., the House and Senate adjourned to separate chambers to resolve a particular objection. Vice President Mike Pence was present and presiding, first in the joint session, and then in the Senate chamber.

As the proceedings continued in both the House and the Senate, and with Vice President Mike Pence present and presiding over the Senate, a large crowd gathered outside the U.S. Capitol. As noted above, temporary and permanent barricades were in place around the exterior of the U.S. Capitol building, and U.S. Capitol Police were present and attempting to keep the crowd away from the Capitol building and the proceedings underway inside.

At such time, the certification proceedings were still underway, and the exterior doors and windows of the U.S. Capitol were locked or otherwise secured. Members of the U.S. Capitol Police attempted to maintain order and keep the crowd from entering the Capitol; however, around 2:00 p.m., individuals in the crowd forced entry into the U.S. Capitol, including by breaking windows and by assaulting members of the U.S. Capitol Police, as others in the crowd encouraged and assisted those acts.

Shortly thereafter, at approximately 2:20 p.m. members of the United States House of Representatives and United States Senate, including the President of the Senate, Vice President Mike Pence, were instructed to—and did—evacuate the chambers. Accordingly, the joint session of the United States Congress was effectively suspended until shortly after 8:00 p.m. Vice President Pence remained in the United States Capitol from the time he was evacuated from the Senate Chamber until the sessions resumed.

During national news coverage of the aforementioned events, video footage which appeared to be captured on mobile devices of persons present on the scene depicted evidence of violations of local and federal law, including scores of individuals inside the U.S. Capitol building without authority to be there.

Identification and Conduct of ROBERT “BOB” THOMAS SNOW

On or about May 6, 2021, agents received information that a “BOB SNOW” with cellular telephone number xxx-xxx-2009 (x2009)<sup>1</sup>, and email address spectrespy43@gmail might have been in possession of an electronic device within the United States Capitol Building, and might have been involved in a criminal offense that was committed on January 6, 2021.

Based on a search of open-source information and law enforcement databases, agents identified a ROBERT THOMAS SNOW (BOB SNOW) living in Heber Springs, Arkansas with the same identifiers as provided above.

According to records obtained from Verizon, on January 6, 2021, in and around the time of the incident, the cellphone associated with phone number x2009, was subscribed to by ROBERT SNOW, and was identified as having used a cell site consistent with providing service to a geographic area that included the interior of the U.S. Capitol Building.

In addition, according to records obtained from Google, a mobile device associated with phone number x2009, subscribed to by SNOW, was present at or around the U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021. Google estimates device location using sources including GPS data and information about nearby Wi-Fi access points and Bluetooth beacons. This location data varies in its accuracy, depending on the source(s) of the data. As a result, Google assigns a “maps display radius” for each location data point. Thus, where Google estimates that its location data is accurate to within 10 meters, Google assigns a “maps display radius” of 10 meters to the location data point. Finally, Google reports that its “maps display radius” reflects the actual location of the covered device approximately 68% of the time. In this case, Google location data shows that a device associated with phone number x2009 was within or around the U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021 between the time of 2:15:50 PM and 4:34:01 PM.

On or about February 1, 2021, agents interviewed SNOW at his residence. SNOW voluntarily confirmed his identity, and admitted to his presence in Washington D.C. on January 6, 2021, and to entering the United States Capitol Building.

A review of video footage from U.S. Capitol closed-circuit video (CCV) of the events of January 6, 2021 revealed a person believed to be SNOW present in various locations inside the U.S. Capitol Building. Agents believe the person identified in the series of screenshots below to be SNOW based on their prior interview with SNOW, and based on a comparison of CCV footage with the SNOW’s most recent driver’s license photograph. This individual was tracked on multiple CCV cameras throughout the U.S. Capitol Building based on these comparisons, and based on his clothing and accessories.

<sup>1</sup> The complete phone number is known to the affiant, but omitted here due to the public nature of this filing.

At approximately 2:15 PM (19:15:38Z) CCV captured a person believed to be SNOW entering the U.S. Capitol Building through the Senate Wing Door. He was talking on a cellular telephone and wearing a dark-colored sweatshirt and a dark knit hat, with a light blue strap around his person:

The same person believed to be SNOW passed through the same area at approximately 2:24 PM, and can be seen waving people into the building and patting people on the back as they enter. Here, he can be seen wearing a dark-colored sweatshirt and a dark knit hat, with a light blue cooler around his person:

At approximately 2:29 PM (19:29:38Z), CCV captured a person believed to be SNOW in the Rotunda of the Capitol Building holding a cell phone and wearing what appears to be the same dark-colored sweatshirt, dark knit hat and light blue cooler around his person:

At approximately 2:31 PM (19:31:49Z), CCV captured a person believed to be SNOW walking through the Statuary Hall of the Capitol Building, looking at his cellular telephone and wearing what appears to be the same dark-colored sweatshirt, dark knit hat and light blue cooler around his person:

At approximately 2:49 PM (19:49:28Z), CCV captured a person believed to be SNOW walking down the House Gallery hallway, wearing what appears to be the same a dark-colored sweatshirt, dark knit hat and light blue cooler around his person. A Capitol Police Officer directed SNOW and others to drop to the ground. SNOW complied.

At approximately 2:56 PM (19:56:36) CCV captured a person believed to be SNOW walking down the East Corridor hallway followed by Capitol Police Officers, wearing what appears to be the same a dark-colored sweatshirt, holding what appears to be a dark knit hat and a wearing light blue cooler around his person.

At approximately 2:58 PM, CCV captured a person believed to be SNOW exiting the Capitol Building through the East Rotunda Door, wearing what appears to be the same a dark-colored sweatshirt, dark knit hat and light blue cooler around his person.

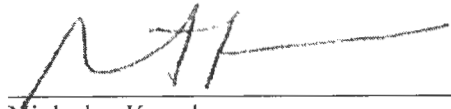

On November 1, 2021, Agents re-interviewed SNOW, who again admitted to entering the U.S. Capitol Building on January 6, 2021. SNOW confirmed his cellular telephone number as documented previously, as well as his email address. SNOW identified himself in two CCTV screenshots taken on January 6, 2021 inside the Capitol Building. Snow provided Agents with the light blue cooler seen around SNOW's person in the CCTV screenshots. SNOW recalled a moment inside the Capitol Building after being prone on the ground and searched by law enforcement when he was provided directions to exit. SNOW stated that he exited the U.S. Capitol Building as instructed, and soon re-entered. He told Agents that when he re-entered the Capitol Building he urinated on a column inside an area he thought to be a cafeteria and then exited once more.

Criminal Charges

Based on the foregoing, your affiant submits that there is probable cause to believe that ROBERT THOMAS SNOW violated 18 U.S.C. § 1752(a)(1) and (2), which makes it a crime to (1) knowingly enter or remain in any restricted building or grounds without lawful authority to do; and (2) knowingly, and with intent to impede or disrupt the orderly conduct of Government business or official functions, engage in disorderly or disruptive conduct in, or within such proximity to, any restricted building or grounds when, or so that, such conduct, in fact, impedes or disrupts the orderly conduct of Government business or official functions; or attempts or conspires to do so. For purposes of Section 1752 of Title 18, a "restricted building" includes a posted, cordoned off, or otherwise restricted area of a building or grounds where the President or other person protected by the Secret Service, including the Vice President, is or will be temporarily visiting; or any building or grounds so restricted in conjunction with an event designated as a special event of national significance.

Your affiant submits there is also probable cause to believe that ROBERT THOMAS SNOW violated 40 U.S.C. § 5104(e)(2)(D) & (G), which makes it a crime to willfully and knowingly (D) utter loud, threatening, or abusive language, or engage in disorderly or disruptive conduct, at any place in the Grounds or in any of the Capitol Buildings with the intent to impede, disrupt, or disturb the orderly conduct of a session of Congress or either House of Congress, or the orderly conduct in that building of a hearing before, or any deliberations of, a committee of Congress or either House of Congress; and (G) parade, demonstrate, or picket in any of the Capitol Buildings.

ADVICE OF PENALTIES AND SANCTIONS

TO THE DEFENDANT:

YOU ARE ADVISED OF THE FOLLOWING PENALTIES AND SANCTIONS:

Violating any of the foregoing conditions of release may result in the immediate issuance of a warrant for your arrest, a revocation of your release, an order of detention, a forfeiture of any bond, and a prosecution for contempt of court and could result in imprisonment, a fine, or both.

While on release, if you commit a federal felony offense the punishment is an additional prison term of not more than ten years and for a federal misdemeanor offense the punishment is an additional prison term of not more than one year. This sentence will be consecutive (i.e., in addition to) to any other sentence you receive.

It is a crime punishable by up to ten years in prison, and a $250,000 fine, or both, to: obstruct a criminal investigation; tamper with a witness, victim, or informant; retaliate or attempt to retaliate against a witness, victim, or informant; or intimidate or attempt to intimidate a witness, victim, juror, informant, or officer of the court. The penalties for tampering, retaliation, or intimidation are significantly more serious if they involve a killing or attempted killing.

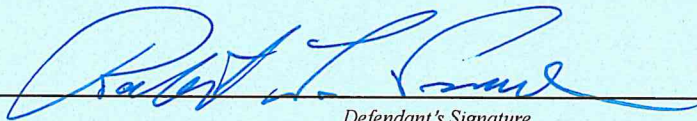

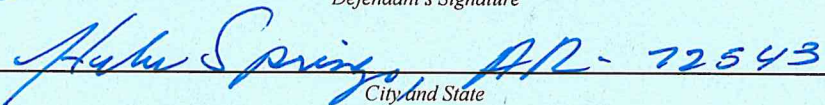

If, after release, you knowingly fail to appear as the conditions of release require, or to surrender to serve a sentence, you may be prosecuted for failing to appear or surrender and additional punishment may be imposed. If you are convicted of:

- (1) an offense punishable by death, life imprisonment, or imprisonment for a term of fifteen years or more – you will be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned for not more than 10 years, or both;
- (2) an offense punishable by imprisonment for a term of five years or more, but less than fifteen years – you will be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both;
- (3) any other felony – you will be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned not more than two years, or both;
- (4) a misdemeanor – you will be fined not more than $100,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

A term of imprisonment imposed for failure to appear or surrender will be consecutive to any other sentence you receive. In addition, a failure to appear or surrender may result in the forfeiture of any bond posted.

Acknowledgment of the Defendant

I acknowledge that I am the defendant in this case and that I am aware of the conditions of release. I promise to obey all conditions of release, to appear as directed, and surrender to serve any sentence imposed. I am aware of the penalties and sanctions set forth above.
