STATEMENT OF FACTS

Your affiant, Mark Tucher, is a Special Agent assigned to the Seattle Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Field Office, Tacoma Resident Agency. In my duties as a Special Agent, I have been assigned to the Joint Terrorism Task Force of the Federal Bureau of Investigation's Seattle Division primarily investigating Domestic Terrorism matters. I have been with the FBI since August 2021. I completed twenty-and-a-half weeks of training at the FBI academy, including legal classes, investigative techniques, evidence preservation and collection, financial related crimes, and computer related crimes. Through my training and experience, I am familiar with the strategy, tactics, methods, ideology and practices of domestic terrorism and anti-government extremists. Currently, I am tasked with investigating criminal activity in and around the Capitol grounds on January 6, 2021. As a Special Agent, I am authorized by law or by a Government agency to engage in or supervise the prevention, detection, investigation, or prosecution of a violation of Federal criminal laws. I have participated in investigations involving subjects at the U.S. Capitol, and as a result have become familiar with methods and techniques for these investigations in addition to the processes for subject identification.

The U.S. Capitol is secured 24 hours a day by U.S. Capitol Police. Restrictions around the U.S. Capitol include permanent and temporary security barriers and posts manned by U.S. Capitol Police. Only authorized people with appropriate identification were allowed access inside the U.S. Capitol. On January 6, 2021, the exterior plaza of the U.S. Capitol was also closed to members of the public.

On January 6, 2021, a joint session of the United States Congress convened at the United States Capitol, which is located at First Street, S.E., in Washington, D.C. During the joint session, elected members of the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate were meeting in separate chambers of the United States Capitol to certify the vote count of the Electoral College of the 2020 Presidential Election, which had taken place on November 3, 2020. The joint session began at approximately 1:00 p.m. Shortly thereafter, by approximately 1:30 p.m., the House and Senate adjourned to separate chambers to resolve a particular objection. Vice President Mike Pence was present and presiding, first in the joint session, and then in the Senate chamber.

As the proceedings continued in both the House and the Senate, and with Vice President Mike Pence present and presiding over the Senate, a large crowd gathered outside the U.S. Capitol. As noted above, temporary and permanent barricades were in place around the exterior of the U.S. Capitol building, and U.S. Capitol Police were present and attempting to keep the crowd away from the Capitol building and the proceedings underway inside.

At such time, the certification proceedings were still underway and the exterior doors and windows of the U.S. Capitol were locked or otherwise secured. Members of the U.S. Capitol Police attempted to maintain order and keep the crowd from entering the Capitol; however, around 2:00 p.m., individuals in the crowd forced entry into the U.S. Capitol, including by breaking windows and by assaulting members of the U.S. Capitol Police, as others in the crowd encouraged and assisted those acts.

Shortly thereafter, at approximately 2:20 p.m., members of the United States House of Representatives and United States Senate, including the President of the Senate, Vice President Mike Pence, were instructed to—and did—evacuate the chambers. Accordingly, the joint session of the United States Congress was effectively suspended until shortly after 8:00 p.m. Vice President Pence remained in the United States Capitol from the time he was evacuated from the Senate Chamber until the sessions resumed.

Earlier this day, at approximately 1:00 p.m., a crowd of violent rioters assembled on the West Front of the United States Capitol. USCP formed a line of bike racks extending from the north end of the West Front to the south end to act as a barrier against the crowd. Officers were standing watch behind this line and fending off repeated attempts by the rioters to pull on the bike racks, either with their hands or with ropes and straps.

At approximately 2:00 p.m., some people in the crowd forced their way through, up, and over the barricades and law enforcement. The crowd advanced to the exterior façade of the building. The crowd was not lawfully authorized to enter or remain in the building and, prior to entering the building, no members of the crowd submitted to security screenings or weapons checks by USCP officers or other authorized security officials. At such time, the certification proceedings were still underway, and the exterior doors and windows of the United States Capitol were locked or otherwise secured. Members of law enforcement attempted to maintain order and keep the crowd from entering the United States Capitol.

At approximately 2:30 p.m., significant sections of the police line on and near the United States Capitol's Lower West Terrace broke as the rioters in the crowd swarmed and overwhelmed the law enforcement officers. Some of the rioters were able to penetrate the scaffolding, a position that gave them access to the stairs to the upper terraces where there are several key doors, including the doorway to the Lower West Terrace, also referred to as the "tunnel." Officers from the USCP and the Washington, D.C. Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) formed a police line in the tunnel blocking that entrance to the United States Capitol building and were repeatedly fending off assaults by some of the rioters. At approximately 2:42 p.m., rioters began entering the tunnel and ambushing the officers. The rioters broke the glass and forced the doors open. In response, the USCP and MPD officers formed a police line blocking that entrance to the U.S. Capitol building. From approximately 2:42 p.m. and on, numerous rioters were consistently attempting to breach the police line that formed in the tunnel. The rioters used various weapons, as well as the force of their bodies, in an attempt to overcome the officers. Many of the rioters assaulted MPD and USCP officers by hurling objects towards the officers, physically striking officers with batons and other blunt instruments, using lights to distract and disorient the officers, using electrical shock devices, crushing officers between the doors and walls of the confined space, and by deploying chemical sprays and fire extinguishers against the officers.

During national news coverage of the aforementioned events, video footage which appeared to be captured on mobile devices of persons present on the scene depicted evidence of violations of local and federal law, including scores of individuals inside the U.S. Capitol building without authority to be there.

FACTS SPECIFIC TO RICHARD SLAUGHTER AND CADEN PAUL GOTTFRIED

Based on an initial review of publicly available video footage, USCP surveillance footage, and body worn camera (“BWC”) footage of officers who responded to the United States Capitol on January 6, 2021, two white men, later identified as Caden Paul Gottfried and Richard Slaughter, could be seen engaging in an assault against law enforcement officers guarding the United States Capitol. Gottfried and Slaughter were among a large group of rioters engaging law enforcement in an area known as the “tunnel.” The “tunnel” is a narrow point of entry on the Lower West Terrace of the Capitol, circled below:

Caden Paul Gottfried, along with his stepfather, Richard Slaughter, initially came to the attention of the Seattle Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation after an inflight incident aboard an Alaska Airlines flight on January 7, 2021, related to mask non-compliance and protesting the results of the 2020 election. Records from Alaska Airlines confirmed that both Gottfried and Slaughter traveled together from Seattle to Philadelphia on January 4, 2021, and were on Alaska Airlines flight 1085 from Washington, D.C. – Dulles to Seattle, Washington (SEA) together on January 7, 2021. Records from Marriott Bonvoy Hotels also confirmed that Slaughter had made a reservation at the Sheraton in Pentagon City, Virginia, for January 5-7, 2021.

Slaughter was interviewed by FBI Agents in February 2021 and admitted to being at Capitol building on January 6th with Gottfried. Slaughter denied seeing any crimes being committed, and stated that “conservatives don’t protest, they have jobs.” Slaughter also claimed that Gottfried had been detained by police while at the Capitol.

In April 2021, a confidential human source (CHS) identified Slaughter in footage from the Capitol riots, providing links from Slaughter’s wife’s Facebook page containing images of Slaughter at the Capitol on January 6, 2021, as well as links to an open-source video in which Slaughter is shown near the Lower West Terrace tunnel. In one video, Slaughter is giving an interview to another individual and states that he is looking for his son, Caden Gottfried. During the interview, Slaughter states that he is from Washington State, and that he is at the Capitol because, “this is the last resort, it was statistically impossible to lose this election, and there is just, um, nauseating amounts of fraud, and it’s not being heard or seen, and we really have nothing left.” Slaughter goes on to state that, in response to how the events of January 6, 2021, end, “we don’t leave. We stay united. And we take back our country.”¹

A further review of U.S. Capitol video footage identified both Gottfried and Slaughter as being around the Lower West Terrace tunnel on January 6.

On January 6, 2021, a tall, white male wearing a red shirt, grey/white backpack, and a dark beanie cap, who has been identified as Caden Paul Gottfried, can be seen moving to the front of the riot line located at the Lower West Terrace tunnel entrance, where he engaged with law enforcement officers guarding the United States Capitol prior to being detained by Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) officers and transported to US Capitol Police for detention.

Between approximately 3:27 and 3:42, Gottfried moved away from the quieter protestors and towards the rioters positioned at the tunnel entrance. Gottfried moves to the front, while protestors are surging against the police line and firing chemical irritants. Videos uploaded to Youtube during this period show Gottfried participating in the surge, as seen in the figures below:

Around the same time, at approximately 3:32 p.m., a man wearing a blue “Trump 2020” hat and a “Make America Great Again” sweatshirt, with a black gaiter covering his face, later identified as Richard Slaughter, was standing among the crowd near the entrance to the tunnel.

Approximately two minutes later, Slaughter can be seen grabbing a police shield from another rioter in the crowd and keeping the shield from a police officer.

Figure 14

At approximately 3:40 p.m., Slaughter can be seen engaging with officers guarding the tunnel. On body camera footage, around the same time, Slaughter is heard saying to officers at the entrance "...You guys need to stand down. Just walk away nobody will fucking hurt any of you... This is America. This isn't fucking right. You fucking know it.... This has never been the America I ever fucking known..."

At approximately 3:58 p.m., Slaughter can be seen struggling amongst other rioters and then having a long pole in his hand which was covered by his black fingerless glove. Slaughter continued to use the pole to attack officers guarding the front line of the tunnel.

Footage from personal videos taken during the riot additionally showed Slaughter using a pole to hit police officers. Specifically, in the above screen shots, Slaughter's face and hands are seen grabbing the pole and jabbing it towards the front line of officers. The gloves in the above screenshots as well as the red sweatshirt are consistent with other images of Slaughter captured in surveillance videos.

At approximately 4:06 p.m., Slaughter handed chemical spray to another individual who was later identified as Cody Mattice². Footage from Parler shows Slaughter with a pink/red object in his hand, which appears to be OC spray. Slaughter hands the object to an individual wearing a black hoodie, gray helmet, and sitting on the shoulders of another person.

While Slaughter was attacking law enforcement in the front of the tunnel, Gottfried was in the tunnel entrance engaging in an assault on law enforcement. At approximately 3:42 p.m., USCP surveillance footage captured Gottfried standing in the front of the West Terrace Tunnel.

² Mattice has been sentenced in Case No. 1:21-cr-657(1) (BAH).

At approximately 4:00 p.m., Gottfried was in the tunnel pushing against the police line. According to MPD Officer J.L., Gottfried was pushing against the police line with his back while facing the crowd. Officer J.L. identified Gottfried as the younger of two men who were pushing against the police line with their backs. During this time, Gottfried continues to engage with law enforcement by using his bodyweight to push against the line of officers with his back. Gottfried's actions led officers to pull him through the police line and into the tunnel, where he was then detained.

Body camera footage worn by MPD Officer J.L. captured Gottfried as he was being pulled through the police line.

After being detained by MPD officers, Gottfried was escorted through the Capitol by USCP officers before being moved to USCP Detention prior to his eventual release. U.S. Capitol Police Sergeant O.B. identified Gottfried as being released from detention at approximately 6:50 p.m. on January 6, 2021. Sergeant O.B. also provided Gottfried with a document memorializing Gottfried's detention, which included Gottfried's known address in Orting, Washington.

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing, I submit that there is probable cause to believe that Richard Slaughter violated 18 U.S.C. §§ 111(a)(1) and (b), which makes it a crime to forcibly assault, resist, oppose, impede, intimidate, or interfere with certain designated individuals, and to use a deadly or dangerous weapon or inflict bodily injury during the commission of such acts. Within the meaning of this statute, a designated individual is an officer or employee of the United States or of any agency in any branch of the United States Government (including any member of the uniformed services), while such officer or employee is engaged in or on account of the performance of official duties, or any person assisting such an officer or employee in the performance of official duties or on account of that assistance.

I further submit that there is probable cause to believe that Caden Paul Gottfried violated 18 U.S.C. § 111(a)(1), which makes it a crime to forcibly assault, resist, oppose, impede, intimidate, or interfere with certain designated individuals. Within the meaning of this statute, a designated individual is an officer or employee of the United States or of any agency in any branch of the United States Government (including any member of the uniformed services), while such officer or employee is engaged in or on account of the performance of official duties, or any person assisting such an officer or employee in the performance of official duties or on account of that assistance.

I further submit there is probable cause to believe that Richard Slaughter and Caden Paul Gottfried violated 18 U.S.C. § 231(a)(3), which makes it unlawful to commit or attempt to commit any act to obstruct, impede, or interfere with any fireman or law enforcement officer lawfully engaged in the lawful performance of his official duties incident to and during the commission of a civil disorder which in any way or degree obstructs, delays, or adversely affects commerce or the movement of any article or commodity in commerce or the conduct or performance of any federally protected function. For purposes of Section 231 of Title 18, a federally protected function means any function, operation, or action carried out, under the laws of the United States, by any department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States or by an officer or employee thereof. This includes the Joint Session of Congress where the Senate and House count Electoral College votes.

I further submit that there is probable cause to believe that Richard Slaughter violated 18 U.S.C. §§ 1752(a)(1), (2), (4), and (b)(1)(A), which makes it a crime to (1) knowingly enter or remain in any restricted building or grounds without lawful authority to do; (2) knowingly, and with intent to impede or disrupt the orderly conduct of Government business or official functions, engage in disorderly or disruptive conduct in, or within such proximity to, any restricted building or grounds when, or so that, such conduct, in fact, impedes or disrupts the orderly conduct of Government business or official functions; (4) knowingly engage in any act of physical violence against any person or property in any restricted building or grounds; or attempts or conspires to do so; and (b)(1)(A) to commit any of the aforementioned offenses with a deadly or dangerous weapon or firearm. For purposes of Section 1752 of Title 18, a “restricted building” includes a posted, cordoned off, or otherwise restricted area of a building or grounds where the President or other person protected by the Secret Service, including the Vice President, is or will be temporarily visiting; or any building or grounds so restricted in conjunction with an event designated as a special event of national significance.

I further submit that there is probable cause to believe that Caden Paul Gottfried violated 18 U.S.C. §§ 1752(a)(1), (2), and (4) which makes it a crime to (1) knowingly enter or remain in any restricted building or grounds without lawful authority to do; (2) knowingly, and with intent to impede or disrupt the orderly conduct of Government business or official functions, engage in disorderly or disruptive conduct in, or within such proximity to, any restricted building or grounds when, or so that, such conduct, in fact, impedes or disrupts the orderly conduct of Government business or official functions. For purposes of Section 1752 of Title 18, a “restricted building” includes a posted, cordoned off, or otherwise restricted area of a building or grounds where the President or other person protected by the Secret Service, including the Vice President, is or will be temporarily visiting; or any building or grounds so restricted in conjunction with an event designated as a special event of national significance.

Finally, I submit there is also probable cause to believe that Richard Slaughter and Caden Paul Gottfried violated 40 U.S.C. § 5104(e)(2)(F), which makes it a crime to willfully and knowingly engage in an act of physical violence in the Grounds or any of the Capitol Buildings.

Respectfully submitted,

Special Agent Mark Tucher
