Crim No. 1:23-mj-182 (RMM)

UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

The United States of America hereby respectfully moves the Court for the entry of a protective order governing the production of discovery by the parties in the above-captioned case. Counsel for Ms. Cramer has indicated no opposition to this motion. Counsel for Mr. Barber who appeared as retained counsel for him at his initial appearance has been provided the draft protective order and indicated. He responded that he had no objection to the protective order but is working on pro hac vice admission. However, he has not yet been admitted pro hac vice. Therefore, the United States submits this motion to the Court given Defendants agreement with or lack of objection to this motion for the entry of the attached protective order. It also does so in order to provide discovery and plea offers accordingly.

Respectfully submitted,

MATTHEW M. GRAVES
